PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Memorial Day
Don't forget to remember
Some Gone, None Forgotten

This Day

marks the beginning of summer.

It features parades, BBQs and other activities but we must not forget the purpose of the day.

How It Began

On May 30, 1868, Union General John A. Logan declared the occasion to decorate the graves of Civil War soldiers. Twenty years later, the name was changed to Memorial Day. On May 11, 1950, Congress passed a resolution requesting that the President issue a proclamation calling on Americans to observe each Memorial Day by setting aside a time on that day to unite in prayer for peace.

In 1971, President Richard M. Nixon declared Memorial Day a federal holiday. Memorial Day is now observed on the last Monday in the month of May.

Let us not forget to pause and remember the brave men and women who put on the uniform of our armed forces and put themselves in harm's way so that we could sleep safely in our homes at night.

The Air Force Enlisted Village

A one of a kind community with a remarkable mission.

What makes our community one of a kind?

Our residents make our community one of a kind because it's a community for surviving spouses of retired active duty, Air National Guard, and Air Force reserve members, retired military couples, and moms of military members. (Surviving spouses have priority. Couples and moms are welcome when space is available.)

The Air Force Enlisted Village is comprised of Bob Hope Village, an independent living community, and Hawthorn House, our assisted living and memory care residence. We're located in the beautiful Florida panhandle near Eglin AFB, Hurlburt Field, and the beaches of the Emerald Coast.

Residents live here hassle free with an abundance of amenities to include transportation, maintenance, security, fitness and social activities, health services, chapel program, and more. They find camaraderie while sharing memories of military life and a place they can call home while encouraging and supporting one another.

What makes our mission remarkable?

Our mission is simple: to provide a home. We know that when a surviving spouse of a retired military member makes her home here, we're taking care of her for the rest of her life. Our Mom Rule ensures that all residents are treated with dignity and respect just as we'd treat our own moms. Their golden years are truly golden at Bob Hope Village and Hawthorn House.

The military has a saying, "we take care of our own." Here at the Air Force Enlisted Village, we take that statement seriously. That's why we extend our mission to welcome surviving spouses of active duty, Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve who die while in service to live here up to one year. We've helped many military families in need of a home when faced with tragedies.

What can you do?

Share our story with your military family. Perhaps you or someone you know may find living in our community beneficial. Give your financial support to the Air Force Enlisted Village. Together we can take care of our own. Through your support, we'll ensure this one of a kind community with a remarkable mission will always be here for you or someone you know.
